

A Tribute to Heinz

Reel 8x32: Suggested music: Craigellachie Band: Take Your Seats – Track 16

Bars 1-8: All 3 couples cross and set, cross back again and set.

Bars 9-12: 1st and 2nd couple cross and cast one place. 3rd couple set, dance up to 1st place and face out.

13-16: 3rd couple and 1st couple dance a double half figure of eight, 3s casting and 1s crossing up to begin.

WHILE

2nd couple turn RH and face out on opposite sides.

Finish (3), 1, (2)

Bars 17-24: 1st couple give left shoulder to 1st corner position to dance a reel of 3 across the dance, 1st man with 2nd couple (in 3rd place) and 1st lady with 3rd couple (in top place). 3rd and 2nd couples are already facing out and cast into the reel.

Bars 25-28: 1st couple dance half left shoulder reel with 1st corner (in partner's 1st corner position), while first corner passes left shoulder with dancing person, passes through 2nd place on that side and dances diagonally to own corner position.

29-32: 1st couple repeat with 2nd corners in a right shoulder half reel.

The “reels” in bars 25-32 were first devised by Heinz Duewell of the Hunter Valley Branch for the dance, The Guide Patrol, written when his daughter was a Girl Guide. Heinz has been a dancer, teacher, devisor and newsletter editor for the Hunter Valley Branch for many years.
